Report on the movie Screening of Pride and Prejudice

The Department of English, Holy Cross College, organized a movie screening of Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen on 27th June 2024. The event was held in F1-8 from 1:00 PM to 3:30 PM and was open to all faculty members and students across departments.

The screening witnessed an enthusiastic turnout, with approximately 100 students in attendance. The movie brought to life Austen's timeless classic, offering an engaging visual interpretation of the novel's themes of love, class, and societal expectations.

The event aimed to enhance literary appreciation among students and provide them with an opportunity to experience a cinematic adaptation of a renowned literary work. A brief discussion session followed the screening, where participants shared their reflections and insights on the adaptation and its fidelity to the novel.

The faculty and students expressed their appreciation for the initiative taken by the Department of English and suggested similar screenings for other literary classics in the future. Overall, the event was a resounding success, fostering a deeper connection with literature in a relaxed and enjoyable setting.
