Celebration of Anti-Ragging Day

12th August, 2024

The 'Anti Ragging Cell' of Holy Cross College, Agartala, has celebrated the 'Anti Ragging Day' with great enthusiasm on 12th August, 2024 from 2:00 pm onwards in the Room no. AB-F2-02. The theme for this year's 'Anti Ragging Day' was "Unite Against Ragging". The main objective of the program was to sensitize students about the legal and ethical implications of ragging, promote a culture of respect and empathy, and establish effective mechanisms to prevent and address ragging incidents.

The program commenced with a welcome address by Mrs. Sharmili Chakraborty, Convenor of the 'Anti Ragging Cell'. Then Mrs. Chakraborty and Mr. Rajesh Kumar Das, member of the 'Anti Ragging Cell' explained the importance of the day and various facts related to ragging along with the activities that will be treated as ragging and also the various measures taken by the institution (Holy Cross College) for prohibition of ragging followed by the consequences for involving in the act as per the rules of UGC. This session was followed by question-answer and Doubt Clearing session, where the students asked various questions and the respective member of the 'Anti Ragging Cell' answered all of them patiently making the whole session a truly interactive one.
