REPORT on Awareness Program on “Menstrual Health Hygiene”

Internal Complaints Committee of the college, in collaboration with The Period Society, an NGO had organized an awareness program on “Menstrual Health Hygiene”, in Sipaipara village on the 9th of March 2023, Thursday. A team of female faculty members and girl students of the college, along with the members of The Period Society had visited the office of the Sipaipara village committee, where the adolescent women of the area had been requested to gather.

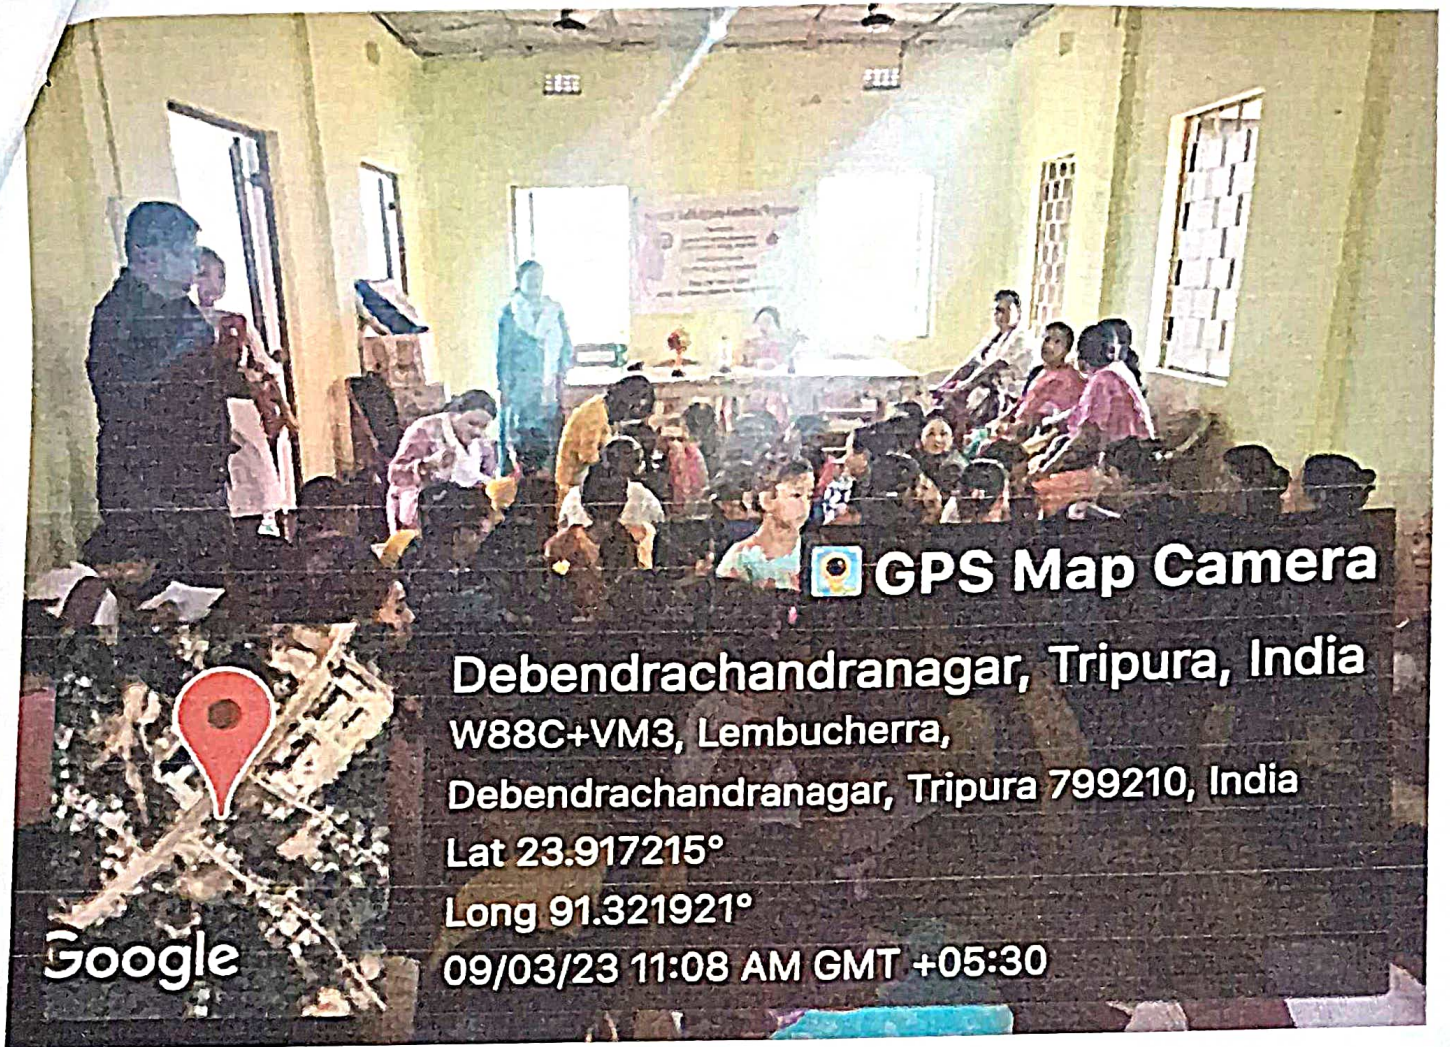

The team interacted with the group of adolescent girls and women of the area and conducted an awareness session on the significance of menstrual hygiene, followed by a survey conducted by the members of The Period Society on the knowledge on Menstrual Health Hygiene. The members of The Period Society had also distributed Sanitary packets, which was funded by Holy Cross College, Agartala, to all the women, who had gathered for the program, so as to encourage them to make use and benefit from the use of sanitary pads. More than 50 women from the area had gathered and the ICC, HCCA could successfully conduct the program by creating awareness amongst the women about the essential need of maintaining menstrual hygiene.
