FACULTY EVALUATION: A REPORT

The academic year 2021-22, an evaluation of the faculty performance was conducted during the months of May-June 2022. There were two sets of evaluation; namely, Student evaluation of teachers and peer evaluation of teaching faculty. The evaluation was conducted online mode. Briefing regarding the feedback; its significance, need for honest assessment and greater valid based on large number of respondent participation were explained to the students offline. Nearly ninety percent of the respondent submitted the filled-up form.

Student Evaluation of Teachers

A concise questionnaire was drawn up in consultation with the teaching faculty representatives. College administration facilitated this online feedback and did the analysis with utmost diligence and confidentiality. On the basis of the finding and its urgency, the administration briefed couple of departments together and served a collective 'memo' for improving certain dynamics within the group and among the individual for enhancing 'teaching learning experience'.

Peer Evaluation of Faculty Members

A similar process of online feedback, as done with the students, was conducted with the teaching faculty and a hundred percent participation was registered from among the faculty members. The findings of the peer evaluation proved very significant as to understand certain hidden group dynamics and individual process in teaching and learning efforts. The findings were shared with the individuals based on the significance and urgency of the matter.
