Kokborok Day Celebration Report

Date: 19th January 2024

Venue: Holy Cross College, Agartala

Organizer: Department of Kokborok

Total number of participants: 51

Resource Person: Shri Nanda Kumar Debbarma

The Department of Sociology at Holy Cross College, Agartala, organized a vibrant and enriching celebration on the occasion of 46th Kokborok Day on 19th January 2024. The event was meticulously arranged to commemorate and celebrate the cultural heritage and linguistic diversity of the Kokborok-speaking community.

Pre-Event Activities:

Prior to the main event, the Department of Kokborok organized a Campus Rally, which saw enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members across various departments. The rally served as a precursor to the festivities and aimed to raise awareness about the significance of Kokborok Day among the college community.

Main Event

The main event commenced with great enthusiasm, with students, faculty, and esteemed guests gathering to honour the essence of Kokborok language and culture. Shri Nanda Kumar Debbarma, Assistant Professor at the Department of Kokborok, Tripura University, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest and resource person for the event. His presence added immense value and insight to the proceedings, enriching the celebration.

The program featured activities aimed at showcasing the richness of Kokborok language and literature. An extempore competition conducted entirely in Kokborok language provided a platform for participants to demonstrate their linguistic prowess and spontaneity. This segment of the event witnessed enthusiastic participation and served as a testament to the enduring relevance and vitality of Kokborok language.

Furthermore, the winners of the Kokborok poem writing competition were announced and felicitated during the celebration. This competition encouraged creative expression in Kokborok and provided a platform for students to showcase their literary talents while celebrating their cultural heritage.
