

Report on

Add-on Course on Understanding Human Rights and Its Significance

The department of Political Science, Holy Cross College, Agartala conducted a certificate course on Understanding Human Rights and Its Significance for the period of six months. A total of 30 students are registered for the course. This course provides internship facility in Tripura Human Rights Commission. The department has selected 23 students from across the departments for the internship programme and divided into two groups. The first group did their internship from 1st to 6th May, 2024, while the second group from 13th May to 17th May, 2024.

The following faculty members from Department of Political Science, Holy Cross College, Agartala were assigned for the course.

1. Dr. Sharmistha Rakshit
2. Dr. Rajeshree Debbarma
3. Kshetrimayum Myleodee Devi
4. Abhijit Dey

The course also conducted written examination on 4th July, 2024 and issued a certificate to the students who passed the examination. A total of 10 students received the certificate of the course.

Prepared by

Kshetrimayum Myleodee Devi
Assistant Professor
Department of Political Science
Holy Cross College, Agartala