

A Report on Tejas 10.0 Celebration

Holy Cross College Agartala

Jubatara, Lembucherra, West Tripura

Introduction:

“The Greatness of a culture can be found in its celebrations.”

- Siddharth Katragadda.

The vibrant celebrations of our country make our national culture unique, mesmerizing, and appealing and it glues the people together in a bond of common respect and shared cultural ground.

Tejas is a yearly cultural fest celebrated by Holy Cross College. This year, it was determined to be celebrated in last week of January. Our department was set to host a segment on 27th January.

Preparation:

The preparation started with the announcement of it about a week or two before. The students started practicing for their performances while the teachers helped them around.

The performances were ready, the stage was set at the outdoor playground near the canteen of the main campus.

Celebration:

The Celebration was set to begin. The chief guest was Prof. Sukanta Kumar Senapati, Director of Central Sanskrit University, Ekalavya Campus. The program was run by the MC Sayantani & Dilip. The holy lamp was lit by the dignitaries. Principal Dr. Fr. Benny John K. CSC delivered the welcome speech. And there was a welcome dance by Sanchai, a student of PG.

A wonderful drama was performed by the students of Dept. of English followed by a performance by Dept. of Teacher Education. A speech was delivered by Students Council Members. A beautiful instrumental performance was done by Jyotishree & her group.

Tanmay and his group performed a very good fusion dance which was followed by a performance by sayantika and her group. After this, the chief guest delivered the central thoughts.
