Sub: Submission of the proposal of organizing a Special Lecture on the Kokborok Day Celebration program on the 19th Jan. 2024, by the Students of the Department of History, Holy Cross College, Agartala.

Respected Father,

The students of the Department of History, in the general meeting of the department on 5th December 2023, expressed their wish to organize a special program on the observance of Kokborok Day. The proposed program would have two (2) parts, the former being a Special Lecture on the theme of the history/importance of the Kokborok language, by an outside resource person. The proposed resource person, for the above-cited special lecture, is Ms. Rebeka Debbarma, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Maharaja Bir Bikram University. This will be followed by an informal second half of the program, which will accommodate different kinds of competitions and games, promoting the tribal culture and language of the state of Tripura.

Accordingly, Father, please find herewith a draft schedule of the whole program, attached as annexures A, B and C, which we intend to execute in connection with organizing the Kokborok Day Program 2024.

Therefore, we humbly request you to grant us your kind permission and approval to organize this departmental program on the 19th Jan. 2024. Moreover, Father, we also wish for your gracious presence on this very special occasion of the History department on 19th January 2024 and bless us so we can successfully execute this novel initiative. We, the students of the Department of History, Holy Cross College, Agartala, are very excited to celebrate this day and look forward to your kind permission.

Subject: Invitation to Deliver Special Lecture on Kokborok Day 19th January 2024.

Respected Madam,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. On behalf of the Department of History at Holy Cross College, Agartala, I am writing to extend a cordial invitation¹ to you to deliver a Special Lecture on the occasion of Kokborok Day, which we are organizing with great enthusiasm.

Date: 19th January, 2024.

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: Holy Cross College, Agartala, Jubatara Campus

Kokborok Day is a momentous occasion in the state of Tripura, and you being an intellectual and a speaker of this language, your valuable insights and expertise would add immense value to our celebration. We believe that your extensive knowledge and experience in the Kokborok language and you, belonging to literature background, would be highly appreciated by our students, faculty, and guests.

The theme of the lecture is open for your choice, and we would be honoured if you could share your thoughts and experiences related to Kokborok culture, history, or any relevant subject that aligns with the spirit of the occasion. The lecture is expected to be attended by students and faculty members.

¹ As per the Holy Cross College, Agartala rules, either the pick-up and drop and vice versa from the residence office of the resource person to the Jubatara Holy Cross, Agartala Campus and back journey or if the resource person is arranging the transport to reach the college and back journey on his or her own, then an honorarium of Rs 1000 would be provided as a token of respect and appreciation by the college administration for a one-hour lecture.

Department of History Departmental Celebration Report

Subject: Report on the Departmental Celebration of Kokborok Day

Date: 19th January 2024

Venue: College Auditorium, F-03-01

Objective:

The Department of History at Holy Cross College, Agartala, celebrated Kokborok Day on 19th January 2024, to commemorate and promote the rich cultural heritage of the Kokborok language, culture, and literature. The event aimed to foster a deeper understanding and appreciation of the symbiotic relationship between the Kokborok language, culture, and literature among the students.

Programme Details:

Special Lecture:

The celebration commenced with a Special Lecture on the theme "The Symbiotic Relationship: Exploring the Interplay between Kokborok Language, Culture, and Literature" delivered by Ms. Rebeka Debbarma, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Maharaja Bir Bikram University. The lecture provided valuable insights into the intricate relationship between Kokborok language, culture, and literature, highlighting their interconnectedness and significance in shaping the identity of the Tripuri community.

Tribal Folk Dance and Singing Competitions:

Following the lecture, the event featured captivating Tribal Folk competitions, including dance and singing, by the students of the different Departments of the college, showcasing the vibrant cultural heritage of the Kokborok-speaking community. The performances resonated with the audience, encapsulating the essence of Kokborok culture and traditions.

Photography Competition:

To encourage artistic expression and creativity, a Photography Competition was organized as part of the celebration. Students were invited to capture moments reflecting the beauty, diversity, and uniqueness of Kokborok culture. The competition received enthusiastic participation, with numerous creative entries showcasing the rich cultural tapestry of Kokborok.

Participation:

The Departmental Celebration of Kokborok Day witnessed active participation from ninety-four (94) students, besides faculty, and staff members, demonstrating the collective enthusiasm and interest in celebrating and preserving the Kokborok heritage.

Conclusion:

The Departmental Celebration of Kokborok Day was a resounding success, achieving its objective of promoting and celebrating the rich cultural heritage of Kokborok. The event provided an enriching platform for students to learn, engage, and appreciate the symbiotic relationship between Kokborok language, culture, and literature.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Ms. Rebeka Debbarma for her insightful lecture and to all participants, performers, and organizers who contributed to making the event memorable. Such celebrations play a pivotal role in nurturing cultural diversity, fostering unity, and promoting cultural appreciation among the college community.

We look forward to organizing more such events in the future to continue celebrating and preserving the diverse cultural heritage of our region.
