Report on Kokborok Sal Celebration 2025

The celebration of Kokborok Sal 2025 was held on January 20th in the G8 room, marking the 47th Kokborok Day (Phil Bwrwichi Sini). A total of 132 students attended the program. The event commenced with a melodious welcoming song, Rangchak Ha, performed by Jessi and group from the Department of Kokborok.

Dr. Rajeshree Debbarma delivered the welcoming speech and conducted the felicitation ceremony. This was followed by an insightful address by Mr. Khirode Debbarma, Head of the Department of Kokborok, who emphasized the significance of mother tongue and the importance of valuing and respecting our native language. The cultural segment of the program featured a graceful Mamita dance performance by Payel and group. The chief guest, Mr. Ramesh Debbarma, former Chief Manager of ONGC and a renowned Kokborok writer, delivered a special speech tracing the rich history of Kokborok from its origins to the present day.

To make the celebration more engaging, a quiz competition focusing on riddles was organized, along with a prize distribution ceremony for a poem writing competition, presided over by Mr. Khirode Debbarma. The event culminated with an energetic Kokborok mixed dance performance by Merry and group. The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by the convenor, PohorJamatia, marking the end of a successful celebration that beautifully showcased Kokborok culture and heritage.
