Place: Holy Cross College, Agartala

No. of Students Participated: 40nos

Nexus is an ingrained abstract that has been brought to believe in integrity and camaraderie. This is commemorated every month, and a department is upheld for this task. Indeed, we, the first-semester students of Human Physiology, are elated to have gotten the chance to prepare around this time. We were imparted beforehand about the topics to be chosen, and with immense contemplation and unanimous decision, we picked the topic cardiovascular system. And we started the process that was necessary for the magazine. After manifesting the whole preparation, we presented it before all the respected teachers. And the day arrived when this toiling has come to a fruitful end, that is adhering on the Nexus board. Furthermore, we have captured some memoirs through pictures, which are given below the insight.
