

Holy Cross College, Agartala

Poster Exhibition

The Department of Political Science organized a poster exhibition for the observation of "International Human Rights Day" with the theme: "Our Rights, Our Future, Right Now" on 10th December, 2024. The exhibition was participated by the students of Political Science department.

The exhibition inaugurated by the respected Principal Fr. Dr. Benny K John, CSC, in the presence of the faculty members and students of the department in the room no F.3-5. After the inaugural program it was kept open for the exploration of visitors for the day.

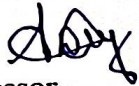

The exhibition was very much insightful for the visitors across the departments which includes students as well as the members of the faculty. Primary aim of the exhibition was to spread awareness among the visitors about the importance of human rights and its significance in the contemporary volatile situation which is prevailing all around the community, society, Country and the world.

Handwritten signature
16/12/24
HEAD
Department of Political Science,
HOLY CROSS COLLEGE, AGARTALA

The Department of Political Science considers the program as overall successful one and in the near future also similar initiatives will be taken as a part of the gesture of good will to the society.

Report Prepared by,

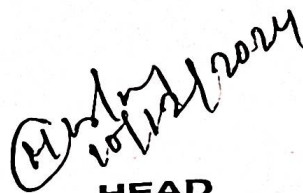

Abhijit Dey

Assistant Professor

Department of Political Science.

Holy Cross College, Agartala.

HEAD

Department of Political Science,
HOLY CROSS COLLEGE, AGARTALA