Report on “NEXUS” - the college wall magazine

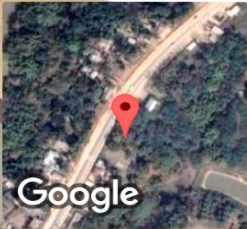

1st August, 2023

NEXUS is a college wall magazine displayed at the ground floor. Each department have to take the responsibility for preparing the NEXUS display, in every month of a semester. The month of August, 2023 was assigned for Department of Human Physiology. The students were informed about the schedule of NEXUS display. They happily accepted to become a part of NEXUS, though semester end final exam almost knocking the door. “Human Evolution”, this topic was selected by the students for NEXUS. Whole task was designed by both 2nd and 4th semester students and all of them jointly did this task to finish it on time. Total 62 numbers of students participated during the entire process and groupwise task was distributed among students. The students prepared all the necessary documents for displaying NEXUS. After finalizing the proper sequence of writing, images, graphics etc. finally on 1st August, they displayed NEXUS in presence of all the faculties. The final outcome of NEXUS display was the hard work, team spirit, guidance and co-operation among the students, teachers and the departmental staff. Necessary photographs have been attached below to express the whole story.
